HB 4528 (Law)

HB 4528 would eliminate the statute of limitations on conspiracy to commit murder. The bill is similar to House Bill 4757 of the 2001-02 legislative session. That bill passed the House of Representatives but failed to see action in the Senate. There is no statute of limitations on murder, yet current law places a ten-year statute of limitations on the crime of conspiracy to commit murder. This discrepancy poses several problems for law enforcement personnel. Sometimes, a case may take longer than ten years to build.
